

Evidence that the joints measure the widest point of the head

A Head width along the head (real scans);
dot = level of the joints

B Joints capture 98.8% of max width

C Joints lie on the scan surface (median 0.41%)

